COMMUNICATION

Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

This communication is written to correct a typographical error which occurred in the filing of the above-referenced patent application. Due to an inadvertent and unintentional typographical error on the transmittal and postcard, the date of deposit in the mailing certificate was listed as June 13, 2001. In fact, the mailing date was July 13, 2001. Please note that the signatures on the transmittals were dated properly as July 13, 2001 and that the mailing date was in fact July 13, 2001. The Express Mail receipt, copy enclosed herewith, properly describes the mailing date as July 13, 2001. Further, Applicants note that the postcard, including the unofficial filing date, properly listed the filing date as July 13, 2001.

The mailing date on the certificate of mailing should have been listed as July 13, 2001. It is only through an inadvertent and unintentional typographical error that the mailing date was listed erroneously on the certificate of mailing. This error was made without deceptive intent.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the express mail filing date of July 13, 2001 be placed of record for this patent application.

Respectfully submitted,

MERCHANT & GOULD P.C.
